Josh – To summarize our discussion from yesterday on the PPG review of the CIP:

- Most of the editorial suggestions are fine and can be implemented.
- Because the document is geared for the public, we need to use “plain, everyday” language, so some of PPG’s suggested higher vocabulary words cannot be used, so alternative vocabulary words will be used.
- PPG question on Section 3.3 “Were any PRP business owners or tenants interviewed? If not, why not?”. RESPONSE: All property owners were contacted; all declined to participate in the interviews.
- PPG made a text change on the Section 3.3.2 under Key Community Concerns. We cannot change what the interviewees said - specifically, interviewees said that air emissions “must” be addressed. We will double check accuracy of statement in CIP.
